LOCAL MATTERS.

See rises tomorrow at 6:06 a. m. and at 5:26 p. m. High water at 7:30 a. m. and 7:46 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section tonight fair and cooler, frosts probable Tuesday fair; fresh northwesterly winds.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.—Mrs. Mary D. Holland, wife of C. M. Holland, residing at 213 Wilkes street, died yesterday morning after a short illness of pneumonia. The deceased was forty years of age, and is survived by her husband and several children. The remains will be forwarded tomorrow to Prince William county, near Woodbridge, for interment. Mrs. Holland was a Miss Guy, a native of St. Mary county, Maryland.

Mr. Andrew Jamieson, a native of this city, where he resided until a few years ago, died yesterday afternoon in Baltimore. He was 77 years old. He leaves a widow, who was Miss Louisa Murdoch, a daughter of the late William Murdoch, a well-known Baltimore business man. There are also two children—Prof. Alexander Jamieson, of Lawrenceville, N. J., and Miss Charlotte Jamieson. The deceased was a son of the late Robert Jamieson and a brother of Messrs. Thomas, John J., Robert and George W. Jamieson—the two first-named deceased. Upon reaching manhood he engaged in various business enterprises and was foremost in a number of movements for the advancement of the commercial interests of Alexandria. In 1865 after the close of the war, he was elected President of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and in 1873, when the first street railroad was constructed in this city, he was president of the company. Several years ago Mr. Jamieson removed from this city to New Jersey, but subsequently he became a resident of Baltimore.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary C. Simmons, whose death occurred last Friday morning, took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Mullings, 301 Pitt street, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Berryman Green, of Christ Episcopal Church, and the interment was made in the Methodist Protestant Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Sanford Fair, who died last Friday morning, took place at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 608 South Patrick street, and was attended by a number of friends and relatives. Rev. E. V. Regester, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, conducted the services and the interment was in the Bethel Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. L. Nalls, J. Miller, A. Warren, R. Rowland, J. Javins and J. Fullman.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Howard H. Groves, who died Friday last at the home of his sister, Mrs. James Martin, 512 Duke street, took place from his late residence at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. The floral tributes were numerous. Rev. George L. Hunt, of the Baptist Church, officiated, and the interment was made in Bethel Cemetery.

POLICE COURT.—After a full of several days there were two cases for trial in the Police Court this morning. The first was that of a young colored woman named Annie Porter, from Culpeper county, who has recently worked in several houses in this city, but for some reason has been unable to hold a permanent place. Her last place of service was in Mr. Henry Brengle's confectionery and while there a number of plated-handle knives and forks were missed. Lieutenant Smith was notified and upon a search found the articles in the woman's trunk. The accused said the knives and forks were given her by a relative in Washington. Mr. Brengle, however, identified the articles as belonging to him. The woman was fined $5 and in default of payment will be sent to the workhouse.

The next case was that of Rice Pendleton, arrested by Officer Ferguson, and Henry Scott, arrested by Officer Bettie. Both offenders who were colored, were charged with stealing a pair of shoes from Nellie Pye, colored. Pendleton, it was charged, after the shoes had been recovered by the owner, cut the uppers from the shoes. Pendleton was fined $5 and in default of payment will be placed on the chain gang. Scott was dismissed.

FOOTBALL.—The opening game of the Episcopal High School football team was played on their grounds on Saturday afternoon with the Fredericksburg College team. The score was 22 to 0 in favor of Fredericksburg. After the game Mr. Hoxton, who was head coach at the University of Virginia last season, and who has been instructing the High School players, stated that several of his best men were unable to play owing to injuries. He said he would have a heavier team to play a return game at Fredericksburg October 21.

The Junior Athletic Club played their first game of the season in Washington on Saturday with the Gladstones. The Alexandria team played a plucky game against odds, they being out-weighted by ten pounds to a man. The score was 5 to 5. The best playing was done by Johnston and Scrivener. Crump's great run was easily the feature.

THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.—The services at the various churches yesterday were fairly well attended, many at the threatening weather kept many at home. Rev. S. A. Willis, of the Theological Seminary, conducted the services at Grace Church and D. P. Sigourney, of the Theological Seminary, conducted the services at the Railroad Reading Rooms. The resident pastors occupied the pulpits in the other churches.

THE HOISERY FACTORY.—The managers of the hoisery factory, on Pitt street, between Wilkes and Gibbon streets, expect to begin operations this week. Everything in readiness for operations except that a few important machines have not arrived but are expected daily. The factory is large and roomy and in every way adapted for manufacturing purposes.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. William Mullen and William Griffith, delegates to the Junior Order of United American Mechanics State Council from Jackson Council, of this city, will leave tonight for Richmond.

Miss Janet Davidson has been appointed maid of honor to Miss Helen McGill Page, of Berryville, the sponsor for the 7th congressional district in the annual reunion of the Virginia Division of Confederate Veterans in connection with the meeting of the Grand Camp Confederate Veterans to be held at Petersburg, October 23, 24 and 25.

A gentleman who was in Richmond last week says that Maj. Wm. M. Smith, of this city, was the finest looking soldier in the military parade on Thursday and that he had the best groomed horse and was the best rider.

LOST ARTICLE FOUND.—An old resident of Fairfax county, who had been in town for three years nor in a barber's shop for two years, period, entered Mr. John Parker's tonorial establishment on upper King street Saturday. His locks were nearly down to his hips and he resembled some of the pictures of Rip van Winkle. He requested the barber to cut his hair. The capillary appendages had been strange to scissors so long that some trouble was experienced in using the shears, as the hair was in places the thickness of sheep's wool. The tonorial finally got off several layers when his scissors struck something hard on the side of the customer's head. Upon a further reconnaissance the operator alleges that he drew forth a whetstone. The Fairfaxian looked at the stone a few seconds and exclaimed, "Well, I plodded over a ten-acre field about a year ago looking for that stone, and forgot I had put it back of my ear."

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—The docket was called and cases set.

The will of Leopold Genzberger was admitted to probate and his widow qualified as executrix.

Com. vs. Emma Jones, indicted for malicious cutting; case set for Thursday.

Com. vs. Thomas Stanton, colored, indicted for forging the name of W. F. Brooks; not pros. entered.

Com. vs. Willis Pettit, indicted for attempted assault upon Mrs. Roberta Payne; case entered on docket for Thursday.

The case of Henry Washington, colored, vs. the Southern Railway Co.; case set for Monday next and a special jury ordered for that day.

J. H. Creighton vs. J. C. Creighton et al.; decree appointing S. G. Craghead guardian ad litem and referring case to W. U. Varney special commissioner.

BOUGHT A WOODEN DUCK.—A saloon keeper in the northwestern part of the city, who has recently made saltwater fish a prominent feature on his bill of fare, concluded Saturday to vary his Sunday dinner with a fat duck. An individual soon appeared and from the pavement exhibited what seemed to be a fine specimen of the web-footed creation. He saw the duck's neck and back finally agreed to give 60 cents for the first and two drinks to boot. He ordered the dealer to put the duck in the cellar and come in and get his pay. Yesterday the "quacker" was sought with the intention of killing it and dressing it for dinner when the saloonkeeper discovered he had bought a decoy. The victim has long since exhausted his vocabulary of ome words.

ENTERTAINMENT.—There will be an entertainment in Christ Church Parish on Friday, October 18th, at 8 p. m. It will consist of readings by Prof. Willoughby Reade, professor of elocution of the Seminary and High School. Between Prof. Reade's selections there will be vocal music by Mr. Charles H. Roberts and members of Christ Church choir. Mr. Roberts is the baritone soloist of St. John's Church, Washington, and one of the very best singers ever heard in Alexandria. An enjoyable entertainment therefore is promised. There will be no reserved seats. General admission twenty-five cents.

FALL PRODUCTS.—The untiring energy of farmers and skillful adaptation of soil show by products that the adjacent farms of Alexandria are fertile and productive of all that the agricultural demands of his labor, either in cereals, vegetables or fruits. We have before us a potato, the white variety, a cross between the "Peach Blow" and "White Star," a sample of a very large crop of dry cooking potatoes harvested by Mr. John B. Trux, of lower Fairfax county, other farmers having similar results from their plantings. A pound and one-half of Dubouché pear from Mr. F. Baggett is also the samples.

THE WEATHER.—The cloudy and threatening weather on Saturday night brought rain yesterday morning, and between nine and ten o'clock there were some heavy downpours. Later the clouds broke and the sun shone, but cloud banks later obscured it, and there were occasional light showers. The temperature was uncomfortably high. About nine o'clock the wind changed to the north and showers became more copious. Today broke cloudy and rainy. The temperature has fallen considerably.

RIVER NOTES.—The schooner Isaac Solomon, loaded with fertilizer by the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company, sailed today for Charles county, Md.

The schooner A. S. Woolly, from Vienna, Md., with 900 cases of canned goods for Mr. W. F. Brooks, is at W. A. Smoot & Co's. wharf.

The schooner Rising Sun, Captain Keith Davis, has arrived with oysters from Currieman to Mr. Theo. Ballenger.

SUBSTITUTE ENGINE.—The fire engine which is to take the place of the Columbia in this city while the latter is being rebuilt arrived this morning via the Washington Southern Railway from the Seneca Works. It was taken to the Columbia house this evening.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.—The monthly meeting of the County Supervisors was held in the courthouse in the county today. Treasurer Wibbit submitted his delinquent tax list. Several contracts for crushing stone, etc., were given out and a number of bills were audited.

During the meeting a personal encounter occurred between Mr. J. W. Yates, the editor of the county paper, and Mr. J. E. Clements, acting Commissioner of the Attorney. The affair grew out of certain publication at which Mr. Clements took exception. Neither was much hurt, though several blows were exchanged.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Gen. James A. Walker is reported to be in a critical condition in Wytheville.

The street fair in Richmond, as well as the horse show, closed on Saturday. Both were very successful.

The seventeenth annual session of the State Council of Virginia, Junior Order United American Mechanics will convene in Richmond tomorrow.

Marshall P. Grimes, assistant light-house keeper near Chatterton, King George county, fell through a trapdoor on Friday and was seriously injured.

Rev. Dr. James R. Graham yesterday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his pastorate in the Kent Street Presbyterian Church, in Winchester, where he was ordained.

The University of Virginia won its fourth football game of the season on Saturday, defeating the eleven from Gallaudet Institute, Washington, by a score of twenty-four to nothing.

The Pangotegues Hotel, Pangotegues, was burned down last week. The hotel was an old landmark, being 127 years old. The house was burned completely to the ground; insurance $800.

It is said that the freight traffic department of the C. & O. road, which has been located in Cincinnati for many years, is to be removed to Richmond and H. W. Fuller, general passenger agent, will be transferred to the latter city.

Judge Edmund Waddill, jr., district judge for the eastern district of Virginia, has been designated to hold United States Court at the regular November term, owing to the continued sickness of Judge John Paul, of Harrisonburg.

John O'Brien, a foreman at the Richmond Locomotive Works, was shot and instantly killed on Saturday, while standing at the door of the works, the bullet coming from some unknown source, and those who stood about did not know he had been shot.

Republican State Chairman Park Avenue was in Richmond on Saturday night and spent several hours in conference with local leaders and republicans from the southwest. It is said that plans for pressing the gubernatorial campaign vigorously were formulated.

Alexander Brown, esq., of Union Hill, Nelson county, Fellow of the Royal Historical Society of England and author of the "Genesis of the United States" and other historical works of note, was stricken with paralysis at his home on the 8th instant and is at a critical condition.

A dispatch from Richmond says: "Sentiment among the members of the constitutional convention is growing in favor of a recess of the body about the 25th instant, for ten days, in order that the members may have an opportunity to go to their homes and satisfy the voters of the work of the convention, and of what may in a general way be expected of that body. The spathy of some of the old-time leaders is causing a good deal of uneasiness in some sections."

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In a course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I considered that a very good recommendation for the remedy. The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale to a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by Richard Gibson."

W. T. Wesson, Glenburnie, Va., druggist, writes: "Your One Minute Cough Cure gives perfect satisfaction. My customers say it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles." For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
